

Confidentiality & Code of Conduct Agreement

I ask all Matchmaking Plan Members to agree to and sign this Confidentiality & Code of Conduct Agreement at or after their Personal Meeting. By registering for the 'Little Something' Plan, attendees of our Singles Events agree to this 'Code of Conduct' at our events. 'Little Something' Plan Members who wish to be considered for Matchmaking must also agree to/ sign this document at their event and provide ID before being considered for Matchmaking.

1. You agree to being single, completely unattached and actively seeking a relationship.

If you cease to be so during the course of your plan, it is your responsibility to let us know that you are no longer available to receive profiles. You must inform us of any relationship started during your membership through or outside this agency. According to your Membership Plan, we may suspend services so that you can return and complete your membership in accordance with your terms and conditions of membership.

2. Our Matchmaking Plan Members and those 'Little Something' Plan Members who wish to be considered for Matchmaking agree to provide copies of 2 forms of identification on request. This can be a Passport, Driving Licence or Utility Bill. These documents must show your Full Name, Date of Birth, Address and at least one document must have a Photograph.

3. All information that is provided to us and to members, either at a 1-1 date or event, is true to the best of your knowledge and all photographs supplied have been taken within the last year. All information you supply to us must be accurate and not misleading. We will assume no relevant information has been withheld during your consultation or on your matchmaking form. If contrary information is received your membership may be terminated and you will no longer be matched or considered as a match.

4. You are expected to adhere to the highest standards of conduct at all times and so are the people we introduce you to. You must behave appropriately, respectfully and courteously in all dealings with other members and members of staff; whether in person at an event, date or meeting, and by phone, text or email. We will not tolerate conduct that is intimidating or humiliating to others or results in criminal damage or damage to the good name of the agency or the well being of staff and members.

5. Our profiles are strictly confidential and must never be shown to any other person, member or non-member of this agency. Any breach of this rule will result in instant termination of your plan with us.

6. You must have declared at your personal meeting, or at an event, if you have any criminal convictions or been denied membership of any other agency. We do not accept membership applications from anyone with a criminal record.

7. I _____ (Name in CAPITALS) hereby confirm I am happy to be a Member of Something Special and agree to the 'Confidentiality & Code of Conduct' agreement set out above.

Signed:.....Date:.....